Good to see beautiful Eileen Landau at the November A.C. Chapter meeting....

This is a scan of the Holy Grail $5000 instant winner chip that everyone was looking for as one the BIG PRIZE during the 20th Anniversary NCV chip promotion held at Resorts 5 years ago. Each month featured a different instant $5000 chip winner. Don’t ask me how this one got on ebay ... I simply don’t know ... but congratulations to A.C. Chapter winner, Peter Volberg, for his winning ebay bid (under $200)! Lots of folks were sleeping on this one ... including yours truly.

Six different colors of chips to identify each player are on each table.

Blue. Orange, Green, Brown, Slate, Yellow. (Sounds a bit like a color code from my old phone company days. <g>)

OBSOLETE CHIP CONSIGNMENT

I’ve been asked to dispose of some obsolete A.C. chips by a chipper friend

TRUMP TAJ MAHAL ISSUES BELATED “BOWSER” CHIP

TAJ-5q

If you thought that Trump Plaza was behind on getting their LE chips out on time ... check out the date on this one!
 “May 23, 2003”

November began as a slow month as far as new issues go. For awhile, it did not look like any new chips would be forthcoming during the month of November. Then within a week of each other, two Trump properties have issued a chip late in the month.

SOMEBODY GOT A JUMP ON THIS ONE!

“MR. CHIPS” NEW ISSUES SERVICE

This chip has not been officially released yet ... but I know of at least five of them that are in collector's hands and this chip has been offered on e-bay recently by a “Philadelphia area” seller. Here is the link; <http://cgi.ebay.com/ws/eBayISAPI.dll?ViewItem&category=899&item=3256553585>

No, I don't have any Marilyn chips to offer to my new issues subscribers until after Trump Plaza releases them to the public. I don't even have one yet for my own personal collection.

REMEMBER THE “WOLF” CHIP?

About ten years ago, Trump Taj Mahal issued a non-value chip to commemorate Wolf Lichten's 50th birthday. It is listed in my A.C. catalog as CC TAJ-00. Well, ten years later, Wolf is now at Tropicana in the position of Senior Vice-President of International Marketing. Tropicana issued the non-value chip illustrated below to mark Wolf's 60th Birthday.

TRO-NCV

The chip illustrated above was a personal gift from Wolf and I do not have any extras. It will be listed in my 2004 A.C. catalog as TRO-NCV

DID ‘YA KNOW ...?

... that discount tickets are available for A.C.'s jitney buses? That's right. Senior citizens may purchase a book of ten tickets for just $5. Frequent users can purchase tickets for $1.25 each in books of ten. Regular fare is $1.50 per trip. This is a great way to get around town and to avoid the exorbitant $5-$10 parking charges that casinos now impose on guests on busy weekends.

THE PREMIER CHIP HARVESTER

From the front-page story of The Press of Atlantic City, November 19, 2002:

ATLANTIC CITY - If he was looking to hide from the law in plain sight, alleged casino bandit Rurick Jackson's luck certainly ran out Tuesday.

About six hours after Sands Casino Hotel reported a heist of more than $140,000 in chips from a closed baccarat table, State Police arrested the 44-year-old Mays Landing man in connection with the crime when he showed up at Superior Court to be sentenced for an unrelated crime.

Authorities found about $6,000 in cash and the balance of $140,000 in chips, mostly in $5,000, $1,000 and $500 chips, in the suspect's jacket at a Pleasantville restaurant that his family owns and where he works as a cook, said Lt. Dan Kelly, assistant bureau chief of the State Police's Casino Gaming Bureau. Authorities refused to identify the restaurant.

The chips heist marked the largest haul a suspect has made off with since a May 2002 ripoff of $180,800 in chips from Trump Taj Mahal Casino Resort.

Sands reported Tuesday's heist at 6:22 a.m., but police did not say exactly when the crime, which was captured on video, took place.

Police said Jackson, who had been gambling in the Sands prior to the heist, walked up to an unmanned, closed table at the end of the casino floor, broke into a locked wooden cover using just his hands and stuffed handfuls of chips into his pockets before walking away.

Working alone, he then cashed out $6,000 in chips at some point before exiting onto Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard and walking to Pacific Avenue. Police do not know how he got away from there.
